

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CLEVELAND INTERVIEWED.

The Ex-President Joins with Chauncey M. Depew, Secretary of Navy Tracy, Theodore Roosevelt, Silver Dollar Smith and Others in

A POLITICAL SYMPOSIUM

The Sunday World

By J. Nevin Hegeman-

n, New York Hotel By the National Citizens' Bank-

By the Second National Bank-

By the Livery and Boarding Stable-Keepers' Association-B. L. Bowles, President-

By E. L. Merrifield-

By Excelsior Bank-

By E. H. Cole-

ra W Brice Cimey's Stables, see Hanfield J. W. Hartsbern S. H. Mason & Co. J. W. Pitney, Robert Hall John M. Tracey, F. B. Odell, Soi Mehrbach, Parhoan

By Richard M. Hunt-

By Henry A. Wilson-

By the Chamber of Commerce-

CANADA'S BIG BLIZZARD.

Extensive Loss of Life and Shipping in the St. Lawrence Gulf.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Quenec, Nov. 30 .- Thursday's big blizzard, which raged all night and yesterday morning, devastated the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Lower Quebec. Numerous disasters in the gulf are devastated the Gulf of St. Lawrence and Lower Quebec. Numerous disasters in the gulf are reported.

The Marie Anne, of Point Esquimaux, went ashore on Anticosti and her crew of three were drowned. The Captain and his wife were saved. The steamer Electrique, the last out of the St. Lawrence this season, went ashore on Crown Island, but floated off at high water. She is now down the Gulf somewhere, but the hinding snowstorm and fog prevents her being spoken. There are grave fears for her safety. She is bound for Buenos Ayres, and has a crew of 33 men.

of 33 men.

The hurricane yesterday blew down the 130foot tower of the Quebec Electric Light Company, and the city will be in darkness for a week.

Narcasse Flavie, of Charlevois, was found frozen in a snow bank five feet deep yesterday morning only 000 yards from his home.

Two fishing yessels are sahore on the east end of Anticosti, and the crews are supposed to be

CAUGHT BY THE WORLD."

Matthew Cruhl, bartender in McKeon's dive.

corner of Hester and Chrystie streets, was corner of nester and Chrystic streets, was charged with a violation of the excise law at the Essex Market Court this morning.

The complainant was a World reporter, who went to the dive on Sunday with instructions to dripk a "knocker out," or drugged drink, after which he was to submit to robbery.

Cruhl was held for trial.

Ill Luck Follows Him Hard.

James F. Donnelly, of Tremont, is a patient in the Harlem Hospital, having received severe

F. Hager & Co.

FREE TRIP TO EUROPE

THE NEAREST GUESS AS TO THE EXACT TIME OF NELLIE BLY'S TOUR.

BE MADE ON A BLANK COUPON

The Sunday World

One Coupon in Each Paper-One Guess to a Coupon-But You Can Guess Early and Often by Ordering Extra SUNDAY WORLDS.

THE WOMEN AND THE FAIR.

Mrs. F. W. Vanderbilt, Mrs. W. W. Astor, the Marquis Lanza, Mrs. Beekman and Other Leaders of New York Society

SET THE MEN AN EXAMPLE

The Sunday World

The Executive Committee Resolves Not to Stop at $5,000,000.

World's Fair to be Kept Open for Another Big Subscription.

Only a Few Thous inds Needed to Complete the First Great Nucleus.

The General Committee of the World's Fair net in the Times Building at noon to-day. After an hour's session the following resoluon was prepared by William C. Whitney, John M. Bowers and C. S. Smith and adopted:

M. Bowers and C. S. Smith and adopted:

Whereas, At a meeting of the General Committee of the International Exposition of 1892, held on the 10th day of November, 1889, the Finance Committee reported that until a complete financial plan could be arranged, it was desirable that the sincerity of the City of New York might be shown by raising a preliminary fund of $5,000,000; and

Whereas, The report of said Finance Committee was adopted, and said Committee was instructed to proceed in such a manner as they thought best, and invite subscriptions to such Fund, and Whereas, Since that time said fund of five thought best, and invite subscriptions to such Fand, and Whereas, Since that time said fund of five Militon has been completed by the voluntary liberality and public spirit of our citizens, which fact is now brought to the attention of the Committee in connection with suggestions as to whether enberriptions in excess of the five-million-dollar fund shall be received; and.

Hesched. That this Committee deems that the determination of that question to have been already made by the Finance Committee in their form of subscriptions heretofore adopted, which Provides for the raising of a find of at least $5,000,000, we the Committee desire to avail themselves of the opportunity of congratulating the citizens of the city upon the zeal and interest shown in the proposed Exposition, by the quick response that has been made to the appeal for such following better for purposed that has been made to the appeal for such following cities of participating is the public spirit, now for the first time becausing fairly aroused and exhibited that the subscription be continued in accordance with the vialus of the Finance Committee. subscription be continued in accordance with

After the above resolution was passed the This is the last working day prior to the opening of Congress, and the World's Fair Guaran-tee Fund is yet a trifle short of $70,000 of complation. It is confidently expected that the balspee will be raised to-day, and that within a short space of time. The Lager-Beer Brewers' Board of Trade, having imposed a tax of ten cents per barrel upon each barrel of beer sold during the year ending May 1, 1880, the total of $446,000 was promised to the Guarantee Fund.

Of this amount, $392,767 has already been subscribed, and the balance, $53,233, has been promised, which is equivalent to an official pledge, and has therefore been added. The sum total now reported by Secretary Wilson is $4,561,032, but there are many subeription books which have not yet been re-mined to him, although the amounts have been redited in the newspapers, which accounts for the seeming discrepancy.

Mr. Wilson has made an appeal to those having books to send them in at once, that the list, which is to be submitted to Congress, may be ready by Monday.

The General Executive Committee will meet in the Times building this afternoon, when the Mylabelity of raising the Fund to $10,000,000

George B. De Revere, Taylor's Hotel Hears Prigge, Hquer dealer, No. 74
East 112th at
Thomas H. Doyle, veterinary sur-Fritz J. Mutter, liquor dealer, No.

1861 3d ave McPartian Brothers, liquor deal-J. Barkin, confectioner, No. 2058

3d ave.

R. Wulp, baker, No. 2093 3d ave.

Revatce & Lawler, plumbers, No.

1631 9th ave.

Thomas P. Twibell, No. 608 Chestatt d., Philadelphia.

Lonis E. Maidhoff, transfer, No.

1563 9th ave.

seph Turner, builder, Mount Verhon, N. Y. Bao: Abramson, pharmacist, No.

O her subscriptions were received to-day as ny the Mayor-Rew York and Brooklyn Confectioners...

desua Weddigen

Bas B Brady

smud Battle & Son

Pan) Suterius Charles A. Maurice Charles A. Maurice The subscription by the New York and Brooklya Confectioners, Chocolate and Alliei Trades, who last Friday combined themselves into a Maillant with a subscription of $5,000. Among the others were: E. Greenfield's Son & Co.

injuries to his leg by failing under a train on the Harlem Railroad which he was trying to board while it was moving. He is a clerk at Le Boutillier's Twenty-third street store and has been very unitedy, having had several deaths in his family recently. log 9th ave. 200 176 Delancey at.
R. Neville. real estate, No. 179
East 113th st. Fair Until Sunday Night. 100 WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 .-Weather Indications-100 For Eastern New York: 9339,356

The weather to-day, indicated by Blakejy's tele-thermometer;

1889, 1888

Speaker on the Second Ballot.

Could Muster Only 36.

Close 'of One of the Most Hotly Contested Campaigns on Record.

SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. WASHINGTON, Nov. 30-1, 30 p. M. -Congress man Tom Reed, of Maine, will he the next Speaker of the House of Representatives. He was nominated in the Republican caucus to-day

First Speakership ballot : IReed, 76; McKinley, 39; Cannon, 22; Burrows, 10; Hender-Another Reed man has entered the cancus, Herman, of Oregon. This makes Reed's vote 80. Only 83 are necessary to a choice. The second ballot stood: Reed, 86; McKinley, 36: Cannon, 19: Henderson, 9: Burrows, 15.

T. B. REED. tall and big-limbed, and has the biggest feet of any man in Congre s.

His face is broad and his cheeks puff out like a pair of bellows, almost concealing behind immen e folds of flesh the little sharp eyes which twinkle like diamonds when he gets warmed up in debate. His forehead is broad and high and a little fuzzy down surmounts the top of his

It is said that he can make the best afterdinner speech of any man in Congress, and what he doesn't know about parliamentary law isn't worth knowing.

HAD TO SHOOT HIM.

Why Capt. Bailey and Mate Nicholson Killed the Chinese Ship's Cook.

Captain Justus A. Bailey, Mate Donald A. Nicholson and the crew of the American ship Southern Cross were in Commissioner Shield's office this morning to tell how Ah Low, the Chinese cook of that vessel, came to his death June 27 last, while the ship was at sea. Ah Low shipped on the Southern Cross when she left this port in October, 1887. He was a meek, mild little fellow, who constantly smoked

His opium debauches became so frequent and extended that the captain finally punished him. Ah Low, the meek and lowly, took his punishent much to heart and retired to his galley.

He never came out alive. The crew did not get any breakfast on the morning of Jan. 27, and lost.
At Sydney, C. B. says the storm is still raging and many vessels are ashore on the coast in that vicinity.
A man was blown off the ferry landing at Levis and drowned.
The steamer Vega is full of water, and the steamers Orleans and Druid are sinking. n investigation found that the cook had barricaded the galley. The mate ordered the Chinaman to come out.

The cook answered with a buliet, and Mate Nicholson suddenly found that he had other Nicholson suddenly found that he had other and more important business in another part of the ship.

As the day wore on the cook amused himself by popping bullets at first one and then another of the crew, alternating his fun by chopping a big hole in the deck, inside the galley.

Capt. Bailer knew that powder and shot were stored away directly underneath the galley. So did the cook.

The captain knew that if the cook reached the explosives it was good-by all around.

He armed the crew, and they opened fire on the galley. The chopping ceased, and when the galley door was burst open Ah Low was found dead, with a bullet in his heart.

The American Consul at Sydney, N. S. W., notified the Attorney-General, who instructed the United States District-Attorney-here to prosecute the men on their arrival. The captain and mate were arrested yesterday by United States marshals and held in $2,500 bail by Commissioner Shields.

marshals and held in $2,500 ball by Commissioner Shields.

Carl Larsen, a Swedish sailor, was the first witness called. He shipped from this city Oct. 7, 1887, with other seamen named Thomas Holmes, J. Asbery, Tom Peterson, Wm. Reeder, — Varburg and Carl Stalk.

He told the story of the shooting substantially as above. He did not know who fired the first shot. The captain and mate, he said, walked around the galley, firing into it from all sides and through the hatch and on top of the galley. The cook returned the fire, shooting about ten times.

For Eastern New York:

Fair until Sunday night;

slightly colder, followed by slowly rising tempergure: warmer Sunday: westerly winds.

The weather to-day,
indicated by Blakej's's
tele-thermometer:

1880, 1

the Commissioner.
Then I'll go on board ship," he said, amid "Then I'll go on board ship, "he said, amid laughter.
The captain finally said he would keep back the man's pay and thus keep the man.
The examination was then adjourned until 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

A $50 Gold Watch for $1 and laughter.

A $50 G

Maine's Congressman Nominated for The Contumacious Dock Witness at Taylor's Hotel, Jersey City.

He Had 86 Votes, while McKinley Won't Come Back, Though, in Spite of That Warrant.

> He is Waiting for Mythical Legal Relief to Arrive.

> And His $18,000 Counsel Fee Remains Unexplained.

> Col. John O'Byrne, the orator of the County Democracy, has transferred his abode to Tayor's Hotel, Jersey City, temporarily. Why he has done this is explained by the remark of his counsel, Mr. Abraham Gruber:

"It's much more pleasant living in Jersey than iving in jail. " The gallant Colonel refused to be interviewed by an Evenino World reporter, who called at his hotel this morning. It was clear, however, that he won't come back just yet, in spite of warrants and threats.

In this connection it might be remarked that it is very strange that Col. O'Byrne's sons are not informed of his whereabouts.

They were isboring under the hallucination this morning that he had just steoped out of his office in the Stewart Building to lunch. At least that is the information fired at the reporter, who called at the office.

Col. O'Byrne's enforced absence on foreign soil will be continued for an indefinite period—until he can get redress for his fancied wrongs at the Bar of the Court of Appeals, and in these days of legal circumlocution and delay no one will prefeud to say when this will occur.

It is expected to be a long time, however, and will perhaps make a big hole in that $13,000 counsel fee "received from the Oystermen's Association for the Colonel's work in their behalf in securing them dock privileges. The gallant Colonel refused to be interviewed

Association for the Colonel's work in their behalf in securing them dock privileges.
This fee it was that made an exile of Mr. O'Byrne.
He refused to tell the Commissioners of Accounts what he did with it and declined to testify regarding many other matters he was asked concerning, when a witness at the Dock Department investigation.

concerning, when a witness at the Pock Department investigation.

The doughty Colonel insisted that it was not in the province of the Commissioners of Accounts to make such inquiries.

Supreme Court Justice Patterson thought differently, and, on application of Corporation Counsel Clark, issued a warrant of arrest and commitment respiring O'Byrne to answer the questions or reside in Ludiow Street Jail until discharged at the pleasure of the Court.

commitment requiring O'Byrne to answer the questions or reside in Ludiow Street Jail until discharged at the pleasure of the Court.

This warrant of arrest was issued under section 850 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and was similar to the one which resulted in the exile of the Chief Clerk in the market investigation last Spring.

As in the McAdam case, the alternative was Ludlow Street Jail or flight, and, like McAdam, Col. O'Byrne chose to flee.

No order is entered in the case and consequently no record is made on which to perfect as appeal, but the able counsel who have been charged with setting aside the writ of banishment, propose to make one.

They are flichard S. Newcombe and Gruber.
Bard & Landon.

Ou Monday they will secure an order to show cause why the warrant of arrest should not be set aside, and in the motion papers will set forth the entire case of the defense.

The motion to set aside they expect will be denied, but they will have their case on record and a basis for a perfected appeal.

Lawyer Gruber said this morning that he will consent to the affirmance of the decision of the lower Court in order to get the case the sooner before the Court of last resort.

How long it will take before a final decision will be reached which will determine whether Col. Byrne is to practise law in New York from New Jersey by ferry, telephone and proxy, or shall return without fear of incarceration in Luddow street Jail. Mr. Gruber would not predict.

He said that it depended greatly on the Correction Coursel's office and its willingness to deep the court of control of the correction of the decision of the correction of the decision of the decision of the decision of the correction of the decision of the de Ludlow Street Jail. Mr. Gruber would not predict.

He said that it depended greatly on the Corporation Counsel's office and its willingness to have an early decision of the case.

Meanwhile there must be a phantom O'Byrne haunting the family residence, 217 East Thirty-first street, for his wife and children said to-day that he spent the night there as usual and went to his office this morning, and this notwithstanding practiced detectives had him cornered in Jersey. tanding practiced detectives had him cornered in Jersey.

Does Col. O'Byrne belong to the Blavatsky soteric school?

FERDINAND'S FORESIGHT.

Bulgaria's Prince Will Wed the Czar's Niece So as to Gain His Favor.

INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.] VIENNA, Nov. 30. - The latest report about the mysterious visit of Prince Ferdinand of Bulmysterious visit of rince reclinated of Bulgaria to Western Europe is that it has resulted in his engagement to the Princess Mary, the eldest daughter of the Duke of Edinburg. Her mother is the only sister of the Czar, and it is surmised that the match is made in order to accure his favor for the young prince, whom he has hitherto refused to recognize as sovereign of Bulgaria. Bulcaria.
The Duchess of Edinburgh is greatly beloved y her brother, and her influence with him ould be all-powerful in the matter.

TERSE TELEGRAMS.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30.—Rodney M. Curtis, of Binchamton, died suddenly yesterday while riding in Fairmount Park with his bride, whom he married Wednesday at Binghamton. No cause of death can be assigned.

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Nov. 30.—Miss Arta L. Cody, daughter of W. F. Cody, and Morton S. Eoal, both of this city, were married at the residence of the bride's parents Thursday evening.

LONDON, NOV. 30.—A weekly, paper in Scotland announces that it will soon publish a Canadian love story written by the Marquis of Lorne.

PARIS, Ky., Nov. 30.—Incendiaries this morning simultaneously fired the residence, tobacco barn, stock barn, hen house and mest house of Thomas H. Waller, mear Hutchinson's Statton. All were destroyed, Mr. Waller, his wife and children basely escaping with their lives.

A 850 Gold Watch for $1

Carlton Undismayed by His Rapid Ap- Hanna Southworth's Life or Death Fight proach to Death.

Handsome Harry Carlton is not downcast by the unsuccessful termination of the movement him and death, Cariton's coolness and calmness is unchanged.

sation, but always replying thoughtfully to any | the trial, which promises to be one of the most question asked. Speaking of his own case he sensational ever known in the annals of the in a prize fight, and the men who saw the affair that ended in my shooting Brennan know that he was clubbing me unmercifully."

Once last night Carlton sighed and said: "That's a sad thing, the suffering caused by the Boston fire."

Carlton played pinochle with coolness and skill with the death-watch. Deputy Sheriffs D. G. Terry and Pat Fitzgerald, until midnight last night. Then he chatted for an hour or more with their successors, Michael Whalen and Thomas Wild. Finally he fell upon his cot-bed and was saleep in two minutes and did not awaken till 9.30 this morning.

He greeted the new watch, Deputies Ferguson and Terry, and ordered toast, eggs and coffee for breakfast.

He is the picture of health and has gained strength in the Tombs. His feeble wife and his aged father call every other day, and they show much more anguish and suffering than the prisoner.

Abe Hummel will appeal in behalf of Carlton to Gov. Hill on Monday, but he extends no word of encouragement to Carlton. The doomed man gets all his hope for escape from the gallows out of his own inner self, but says, quietly: "If I have to die in this way, I shall die like a man." I defended myself, but I had been a wicked quietly: "If I have to die in die like a man, die like a man, 'I defended myself, but I had been a wicked 'I defended myself, but I had been a wicked 'I defended myself, but I had been a wicked 'I my

"I defended myself, but I had been a wicked man and my opponent was a policeman. All my two and a half years of right living—all my efforts to reform and be a good citizen—were of no avail."

Tuesday Joe Atkinson, who thirty years ago succeeded his father. Sain Atkinson, as haugman, will bustle into the gloomy fombs, take a professional look at the corner of the wall, whose every, crack, crevice and angle he knows as he knows his coat, and next day he will erect the gallows—the same gallows on which Dan Lyons was executed, and erected on the same spot.

GREENWALL'S CASE ADJOURNED.

Judge Moore Will Hear the Motion for a New Trial on Monday.

Lawyers Anderson and Terry, counsel for John Greenwall, who is condemned to die on Friday next for the murder of Lyman S. Weeks, began an argument before Judge Pratt this norning for a new trial, based on the evidence morning for a new trial, based on the evidence contained in the affidavits as printed in The World.

At the conclusion of the reading of the affidavits, District Attorney Ridgeway asked that the motion be transferred to Judge Moore's Court, as in his opinion, that was the proper place for the motion, Judge Moore having convicted Greenwall.

Judge Pratt consented to this, and the motion was set down for 10 o'clock Monday morning, before Judge Moore, in the Court of General Sessions. Sessions.
Greenwall was baptized in the Catholic faith
Thesday by Father O'Hara. Keeper Wilson officiated as godfather.
He still retains his hopeful manner, and insists that a new trial will result in his acquittal of the charge of murder.

Featherston Club's Ball. The third annual ball of the Featherston Democratic Club of the Twenty-second Assembly District takes place on Monday evening at the new Central Turn Vereiu Opera House, in Sixty-seventh street.

with Justice Will Then Begin.

As a result of the conferences between Lawyer Howe and Col. Fellows, it was this morning of his counsel. Howe & Hummel, for a new agreed to set down the trial of Mrs. Hanna B. Southworth, the murderess of Major Stephen L. Pettus, for Monday, Dec. 16.

This will not give any more time than is absolutely necessary for both sides to prepare for ays: "I cannot see why Judge Martine should criminal courts of this city.

The defense are scouring both New York and

Brooklyn to obtain witnesses who will substantiate Mrs. Southworth's statements and reveal the true character of her alleged betrayer, and twenty-seven years ago, and escaped while in | a large number of witnesses will be brought

Those who are looking after the interests of the murdered man's family are also preparing to meet this testimony, and will co-operate with the District-Attorney in conducting a vigorous

It is not certain yet whether the trial will take place in General Sessions or before the Court of Over and Terminer, which will be in session at place in General Sessions or before the Court of Over and Terminer, which will be in session at the time fixed. In the former case Recorder Smyth would probably preside. The matter depends entirely upon the state of the calendars in the two courts at the time.

Mrs. Southworth's counsel says that she is very much depressed in spirits again and fears that the two weeks' close confinement at the Tombs prison which is now before her will be a poor preparation for the strain of the trial.

She is restless and nervous and sleeps very little. Her mother visits her every day, and sometimes the brother accompanies her. They bring the prisoner many little delicacies, but she seems to care very little for them, All her meals are now served by a cateror, as she will not touch the prison fare.

It is stated that several new victims of the allurements of Yettus have been discovered, and that they will be produced as witnesses for the defense at the trial.

One of these, a beautiful Brooklyn girl, May Thompson by name, is said to have met Pettus about three years ago, while she was working in a Myrtle avenue store. He accosted her in the street one evening and made her acquaintance in that way.

Costly presents which he made her won her heart, and when once in his power she yielded everything to him, giving up her home and parents and her employment as well.

After a few months he cast her off, and with her life wrecked she had no alternative but to lead a wretched existence of shame, until now she is completely broken down in mind and body.

Mr. Hummel said this morning that neither he she is completely broken down in mind and body.

Mr. Hummel said this morning that neither he nor his associate had ever heard of May Thompson, although they were familiar with the stories in circulation in regard to Pettus's many alleged victims.

Some of those are known and will undoubtedly appear as witnesses upon the trial. It is said that Mrs. Rosa Lloyd will be one of the most important witnesses for the defense.

Was the Germania Purposely Wrecked? LONG BRANCH, N. J., Nov. 30.—Coroner Vanderver will hold an inquest to-day over the remains of the six victims of the wrecked bark Germania, whose bodies were recovered Thursday. Liout. C. H. McLillan, Assistant Inspector of the United States Life Service, thinks the Germania was deliberately stranded.

Indicted for the Umbrella Homicide. An indictment for manslaughter in the first degree has been returned by the Grand Jury against Siegfried H. May for the killing of Mar-tin T. Flynn by jabbing him in the eye with an Racing at Guttenburg. The Hudson County Jockey Club announce that there will be tacing at Gustenburg to-day, rain or shine.

Electricity Deaty

Warcs will run on a dynamo, Bold by

IT MAY BE MURDER James Hedderman Dying From Wounds

inflicted By Charles Sands.

Beaten Into Insensibility With a Paving Stone.

Hedderman Tried to Kiss a Girl and Sands Struck Him. James Hedderman, a muscular longshore lies at the point of death in the New York Hospital. House Surgeon Buel gave a certificate this morning stating that his patient could not live forty-eight hours. Hedderman was struck in the head and his skull fractured during a row in "The Gap," a row of dirty frame houses in the rear of 502 West Twenty-sixth street, late on Thanksgiving

His assailant was Charles Sands, and the weapon he used was a big piece of court-yard flagging, and with this he pounded Hedderman about the head and face until the latter fell un conscious in the yard. Both parties live in "The Gap. Hedderman was carried to his apartments up Hedderman was carried to his apartments unconscious, and at noon yesterday his friends became alarmed and summoned a physician.

Upon seeing the man the doctor at once decided that he was in a dangerous condition, and had him removed to the New York Hospital, and then notified the police.
Capt. Grant and Detectives Chrey and Logan, of the West Twentieth street station, immsdiately instituted an investigation.
The tenants in "The Gap" do not love the police, and they professed entire ignorance of the assault.

The tenants in "The Gap" do not love the police, and they professed entire ignorance of the assault.

After diligent inquiry, however, Capt, Grant learned that a woman, Ella Devlin, was implicated in the tragedy.

She is a young and rather pretty, but somewhat ignorant, girl, who is sometimes called "The Belle of 'the tiag."

Detectives Carey and Logan hunted for the girl all day yesterday, but she was concessed and they did not find her until late last night.

Then they saw her gliding through the dark alley leading from "the Gap" to the street, and arrested her. At the station-house Capt, Grant questioned her closely and finally get the story out of her.

Her sister is married to John Sands, alse of "the Gap." John is a terror on account of his great size and strength, and has been frequently in the hands of the police.

Thankariving night there was a jollification in Charley Sands's apartment, at which were present John and his wife, Noile Devlin, James Hedderman, and several others.

Beer and whiskey were the only refreshments, and about midnight, Nellie went out of the room and, unperceived, Hedderman followed her.

A few minutes later the roysterers upstairs

A few minutes later the roysterers upstairs were startled by screams.

They rushed pell-mell down the dingy stairs, and found Nellie and Hedderman struggling in and found Nellie and Hedderman struggling in the hallway.

The girl, between her sobs, declared that Hedderman had tried to kiss her and nearly tore her clothes off.

Heiderman tried to run then, but the Sands were too quick for him.

Charlie picked up the piece of flagstone, and, as stated, banged him with it on the head until he drooped. as stated, banged him with it on the head until he dropped.

Then the party went back and finished their night's fun.

After gleaning these facts from the girl Carey and Logan went to "The Gap" and arrested the Sands brother.

Charlie was arraigned in the Jefferson Markest Court to-day, and remanded to swait the result of Hedderman's injuries, which result will probably make him out a murderer.

John Sands and Nellie Devlin were sent to the House of Detention as witnesses.

DID THE KICKS KILL HER?

John Hardy May Have to Stand Trial for Wife Murder.

Mrs. Georgiana Hardy, colored, was reported to the Coroner's office this morning as having died from the effects of kicks alleged to have been inflicted upon her by her husband, John Hardy, Nov. 5,

It was charged that the husband's assault It was charged that the husband's assault upon her had caused her to give premature birth to a child last Sunday.

Hardy had been arrested and held to await the result of her miguries. On a physician's certificate that the birth of the child had not been unduly hastened, Hardy was discharged.

The woman died Thursday, and Hardy made so much disturbance that he was arrested and sent to the Island for six months.

Mrs. Hardy made an ante-mortem statement regarding the assault upon her and the husband may be brought back to answer a charge of homicide.

MILLIONS FOR MISS HOYT.

She Wins a Lawsuit Involving Lands Worth Over $2,000,000.

Miss Mary Irene Hoyt, the eccentric daughter of the late millionaire, Jesse Hoyt, whose contest of her father's will has become a cruss-celebre, has won a legal victory in the West Vicelebre, has won a legal victory in the West Viginis United States Court by which her righ property valued at $2 000,000 has been no beyond question.

Miss Hoyts suit involved 480,000 r land in Wyoming. McLowell and Logo ties. W. Va., which had been sold by the Jessie R. Irwin, from whom Miss chased the property. The land is n average of 50 per acre.

The Court granted an infunction
Commissioners of School Law proceedings against these las 343

If You Do Not Get Post